

It is such an improvement not to have myriad telemarketers calling at all hours of the night and day, 7 days a week. Now when the phone rings I can assume its friends and family. Not only were they endless, the marketers could be very rude. I would hate to see the law weakened in any way. Please continue to support it as is. Thank you. Patricia Kendall